FOREWORD

The Black and Gold Staff of 1935 present this yearbook with the hope that it will serve as a happy reminder of the many unusual days spent at P. H. S. If this is accomplished, the Staff will feel that it's work has not been in vain.

ADMINISTRATION

C. B. RIGGLE
Superintendent

The graduating class of 1935 wish to extend their deepest appreciation to the untiring efforts of Mr. Riggle during our four years of high school life. His guidance, personality, patience and ideals have enabled us to realize that our high school days were well worthwhile. We owe him a great deal, and hold the highest respect for him.

The departing class wish him as much success in the future as the support he has given us in the past.

O. C. TREECE
Principal

Mr. Treece is respected and admired by everyone. He is the friend of every student in the high school. He has the pupil's own interest at heart. He is sincere and frank, but very, very kind and amiable. Let us all profit by his wonderful example.

Ethel Canfield

The Board of Education is to be congratulated upon the part, which it plays in keeping the Perrysburg schools operating on a high plane. Being a member of the Board of Education carries with it responsibility of a high order. The members of the Board serve without pay for the many hours of time required of them during their term of office. Their motto could very well be, "We serve."

CLASS HISTORY

CHAPTER ONE

Early in September, 1931, one hundred twenty-five inexperienced but expectant students gathered at the beautiful, new high school as Freshmen. Many were lost, and even the bravest and wisest were puzzled in getting situated. However, with the capable guidance of Miss Wahl, Mr. Bachman, and Mr. Gerber, the sponsors, we finally did get settled and elected these officers:

RICHARD WELLSTEAD	President
VIRGINIA ZACHMAN	Vice-President
DONALD HALBERT	Secretary
ROBERT ANDERSON	Treasurer
FRANCIS CORNELIUS	Reporter
HELEN BOWERS	Student Council Representative

At last our first year was over and we were released for a few months of vacation and rest from our very worthwhile labors.

CHAPTER TWO

Now in September, 1932, the class again assembled for the second year of higher knowledge. We found that our number had dwindled to ninety-six. Mr. Canfield was our well-liked sponsor this year. Again leaders were chosen.

BRUCE BODART	President
HAZEL HOLCOMBE	Vice-President
MARY CRANKER	Secretary
ROSALYN HAIGHT	Treasurer
D. RUTH SAGE	Reporter
KATHERINE LINDSAY	Student Council Representative
EUGENE GRISS	Cheer Leader

There soon came a great sorrow, however, upon our class and upon the entire school. Death reached out his cold fingers and clutched one of our most brilliant, promising, young students—Bruce Bodart. Although we were unquestionably saddened by this tragedy, we had a very successful and eventful year.

CHAPTER THREE

Once more we came together, this time under the sponsorship of Miss Munger and Mr. Huffman. This year we were eighty in number. We elected the following officers:

CHARLES DOWLING	President
GORDON BURKHART	Vice-President
MARY CRANKER	Secretary
ROBERT ANDERSON	Treasurer
D. RUTH SAGE	Reporter
ARTHELLA BRITTEN	Student Council Representative

This year, of course, we participated in many more activities and were sorry to see May fastly approaching. Only one more year until we should receive those all important "parchments." How happy we were, yet how sad!

Early in the Spring, Alma Reitz and D. Ruth Sage were elected to the National Honor Society.

CHAPTER FOUR

In the fall of the year 1934 seventy-four students gathered for the fourth year of our high school life. We had passed through three years of hard work and pleasure together, and we were ready for the last. Now, however, we had taken on that dignified air that tells of experience and authority. Under the guidance of Miss Forsyth and Mr. Barber, we elected for the year these officers:

RICHARD WELLSTEAD	President
ALMA REITZ	Vice-President
MARY CRANKER	Secretary
ROBERT BENCH	Treasurer
ARTHELLA BRITTEN	Reporter
MARY LOBER	Student Council Representative
KATHERINE LINDSAY	Social Chairman
ROBERT KILLE	Social Chairman

All we have left now is the fond memory of pleasant experiences. We have striven against difficulties; we have pushed aside many obstacles; we feel that our year has been very worthwhile; and our thoughts sadden as we realize that the best, dearest years of our life are over. Yet we can look forward to many more if we will remember the spirit we employed before we were graduated from Perrysburg High School. We have the world before us—it is up to us from now on whether or not we shall attain success.

CLASS PROPHECY

It was in the spring of the year 1943. I had spent four years in college, one year of leisure, and three years abroad, this trip being my finest graduation present. Not many graduates had been given a gift such as I received and I began to realize how fortunate I was.

The boat was about a hundred miles from New York Harbor and as I stood gazing at the water someone tapped me on the shoulder and asked, "Pardon me, but aren't you Rock Cummings?" Turning around I recognized my classmate, Paul Harbauer.

As we talked together, Paul informed me that he had been traveling in China gathering material for his next set of books on "The Yellow Race."

"Well, Paul," I said, "Have you heard of the destinations of any of our graduating class of '35?"

"Well, yes, I have heard of a few," he said. "I met Wilberta Reed while in China. She is teaching a class of Chinese children."

"Ruth Wygant also visited China in order to find material for the preparation of some lectures which she intends to give on her return to the United States. Then, too, there are two of our classmates working for a picture company there. They are Lucille Volland and Freda Morgan. These pictures are made exclusively for the United States."

We continued talking for what seemed to be only a few minutes, but must have been close to two hours, for the next thing I remember we were entering New York Harbor.

After I had bade Paul goodbye, I began thinking about our meeting. How glad I was to have seen him, and just where were our other classmates? What could they be doing? I finally decided to devote some of my time to discovering just as many of them as I could.

After my passport papers had been cleared, I hailed a taxi. Immediately I heard a familiar voice say, "Taxi, Sir." As I glanced up whom should I find as the taxi driver but Glenn Burdo. He recognized me also and asked me where I wished to go. I told him to just drive around New York and tell me of as many of our classmates as he could.

Glenn began by informing me that our friend Robert Anderson was now owner of a hotel there in New York and that he and his wife operated the place by themselves. His wife's name was Hazel Holcombe, also of our class.

"Bob Kille," he continued, "is appearing at the Roxy Theatre as a comedian, having as his stooge, Katherine Lindsay, who adds to his success immensely."

"Claude Van Gunten drives a large van from New York City to Toledo," he said.

"D. Ruth Sage is accompanist for many famous radio artists and may be heard over WABC frequently."

With this welcome news from my friend I felt very happy. It suddenly occurred to me, however, that I had been riding just one hour and that my fare was now an even two dollars. Realizing that walking would be much cheaper, I paid my fare and bade Glenn farewell.

Slightly feeling the need of food, I set out to find a restaurant. Shortly a sign came into my view. It read: "Henning's Lunch Room." Could it be possible that this was my friend Isabelle? Hurriedly I entered and sat down. Presently a tall, graceful girl appeared before me asking, "What will you have, please?" At once she recognized me, and I her. As soon as I had eaten Isabelle began telling me all she knew of the class of '35.

"Mary Lober," she began, "is a teacher of French in one of the large New York high schools. Mary Bays is also a teacher in the same school, teaching Home Economics and acting as worthy sponsor of the Girl Reserves."

"Where is your chum, Ruth Hahn?" I asked, remembering how inseparable they had been at school.

"Ruth is touring Europe at present," she continued, "having the leading role in the Ballet Chorus."

"Gene Griss is announcer at WABC and has full charge of the 'Kiddies' Jamboree' here in New York."

"Dorothy Lees, Ethel Keppler, and Aileen Cookson may also be heard over this station. They go under the name of the 'Chatter Cheats' and are under contract to Super-Suds."

CLASS PROPHECY

"Ralph Seiling and Charles Redman are partners in a wallpaper store just around the corner, and have as their salesman, Perkins Henry.

"That is about all I remember of our class," said Miss Henning. Thanking her for the information I again returned to the street. Before long another sign came into my sight: "Madam Pvkii—Fortune Teller." If anyone could help me this woman certainly could. I entered, and telling her the nature of my call she began:

"I see Byford Death in Los Angeles training a revue of chorus girls for a stage production. Over at one side of the stage I see his wife, who plays the piano at rehearsals. Her name," she continued, "was, before her marriage, Arthella Britten.

"Now I see a young lady lecturing to a college class on 'The Importance of Education.' Mary Cranker is her name. Another of your classmates, Stanley Huffman, is professor of history in the same college.

"As I gaze into the Crystal Ball, I see two botanists. They are trying desperately to grow an apple tree producing red apples in mid-winter. Their names are Vernon Snyder and Robert Brown.

"Ursula Kotowski and Francis Kaltenmark are busy at work writing musical comedies to appear in Chicago next year.

"Betty Wiechel is art editor for 'College Humor,' contributing much to the success of the magazine.

"Now I see a young man who is still short but mighty. He devotes his time to a comic strip which appears daily in the 'Toedo Blade.' His name, Don Mericle.

"Here is a coincidence, the two Kzmaier boys of your class, Paul and Frederick, are managing an antique shop in Perrysburg. The collection is one of the most unusual in Northwestern Ohio."

A strange feeling came over me when Madame Pvkii mentioned Perrysburg, the town where all our friendships and good times form a memory which will stay in our hearts for years to come.

"Are there any other classmates of '35 who stayed in Perrysburg?" I asked.

"Yes," she answered. "Here I see a jewelry shop located in Main street, and being successfully operated by Albert Liebherr, who discovered his ability to repair watches through a large time-piece he possessed in high school. (I was informed later that this watch was now owned by Kzmaier's Antique Shop.)

"Adeline Sass owns an interior decorating shop and gives advice and plans for the remodeling of many old Perrysburg residences.

"Nelda Limmer is now giving dancing lessons to school children. Her classes meet twice a week in the high school gym.

"Charles Dowling is town marshal and has as his two deputies, Robert Heckler and Bratche Webster."

As she talked, I seemed to have heard her voice somewhere before. Now I was sure I had.

"That is about all I can see at present," she explained, "but I have a confession to make myself. I am also a member of the class of '35." As she removed her headdress I could see it was none other than Pauline Holkovic.

"I find my work very interesting," said Pauline, "and a fairly easy way to make my living."

Thanking the Madam, I bade her "adieu." It was now 9:00 P. M., New York time. I decided to leave immediately for my native state—Ohio.

As I arrived at Union Station, the train for Ohio was just leaving. I inquired as to the next train, and finding there was none to leave until the next day I realized the thing for me to do was to travel by plane.

I had never cared much about taking both feet off the ground at once, but with Lyonel Eckel as the capable pilot, I felt somewhat relieved.

As soon as I had stepped into the plane two air hostesses came to me and asked if I was quite comfortable. Looking up, I recognized them. Two girls who were as inseparable as they were in our high school days. They were Gladys Schramm and Evelyn Schuster.

CLASS PROPHECY

Glancing at my watch I discovered it was midnight. Being rather tired of reading, I walked up to Lyonel and asked him if he had found any of the "gang" lately. He said he had and promised to tell me of as many as he knew, as we passed over the different cities in which they had settled. I was very glad to know that the plane in which I was flying made a round trip, therefore permitting us to pass over Washington, D. C.

"We are now passing over Philadelphia," said our pilot. "Lyle Shneider is telegrapher at the airport, here. Donald Halbert spends much of his time at the airport and is really quite good at fancy parachute jumping. Muriel Emmitt also lives in this city and spends much of her time writing novels."

Before long, I was informed that the next city of interest was Washington, D. C. I learned that William Schwind operated a Souvenir Shop close to the Capitol. Also that Mae Keller and Inez Finch had published several small books dealing with "Women and Government."

"Ama Reitz," continued Lyonel, "seems to be doing very well in her fight against taxation. She represents the average housewife of the United States and hopes to relieve them of this burden of taxation soon."

It was not long before we were in Ohio—our native state. Our first town of importance was Columbus.

"May Smithers is attending Ohio State University, making an extensive study of Psychology."

"Opal Schaller is well-known in this city for her winning basketball team."

At 10:00 A. M. the plane landed at the Toledo Trans-Continental Airport. I was very glad to find a few of our classmates employed here. I found that Dolores Eckel was secretary to the president of the Airport, who was none other than Gordon Burkhart. Also that in the summer time, when riding is a pleasure, Glenn Reither did very well in talking "them" into a ride. Finding that I knew no one else here, I called a taxi and before long I was in the town I love so much—Perrysburg. Trying to determine where I could find most of my classmates, I finally decided to buy a "Perrysburg Journal."

As soon as I obtained a copy I began reading. I was surprised to find that Shirley Byington was now editor, having as her news reporter, Maribel Van Scoder. Reading the news appearing on the front page, I discovered a very familiar name, Kenneth Stanford, who is singing hill-billy songs over WSPD, Toledo.

Here I see the "Who's Who of Perrysburg" is nearly ready for distribution, and has been edited by Helen Mandell and Virginia Zachman. I see that Marcella Kellermeier and Katherine Hillabrand are in full charge of this year's Cooking School, sponsored by the Perrysburg Journal. As I read farther, I see that all recipes used at these classes, will be taken from Mary Bazavik's latest cook book, "The Art of Cooking."

I turned the page and found numerous advertisements. The first to meet my eyes was a picture of a new Dodge. Reading the ad, I find Robert Bench is now salesman for the Cummins Motor Sales. Whose large ad could this be? "All Branches of Beauty Work—Moderate Prices." Oh, yes, operated by Helen Black. Here we have a "Nickel Lunch" for school children, having as its manager, Luella Bostdorf. "Get Your Dictionary from Greene's Book Store" are the lines which now meet my eyes. There is no doubt but what Melvin Greene is the proprietor.

I guess that concludes all the names which I know in this paper. I start to walk down Main Street. I see little change in its appearance. But wait—what is that bell that sounds so familiar? Of course! It's the school bell. It sounds so good to me. I would give anything to be back there again. Such good times as we all enjoyed there, now but a memory. But what is this I see before me? Yes, it is. Richard Wellstead helping the kiddies across the street. And down on the other corner is Joe Lehman. Those children need not fear as long as these young men direct traffic.

Night was drawing near and I decided to return home. As I left Perrysburg, I was very proud to think that I had graduated with such a fine group of young men and women. Not all my classmates were known nationally, but each had developed his own ambition in such a way that his life had been made a success.—Rock Cummings.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

In September, 1932, another group of Freshmen enrolled. This Class numbered about one hundred and twenty. Under the capable guidance of Miss Wahl and Mr. Gerber they finished their first year of high school life. The following officers were chosen:

MARJORIE KILLE	President
WILLIAM HONNER	Vice-President
FREDERICK HAGEMYER	Secretary-Treasurer
CATHERINE ACKLIN	Reporter
MATTHEW DOWLING	Student Council Representative

In the fall of '33 these students gathered in the halls of P. H. S. again. They found their number had lessened somewhat, there being only ninety-nine left. This time Mr. Canfield was their sponsor, and they enjoyed a very successful and eventful year. The officers were:

JOHN LANDWEHR	President
CATHERINE ACKLIN	Vice-President
JACK THORNTON	Secretary-Treasurer
ROBERT MILLS	Reporter
MARJORIE KILLE	Student Council Representative

In the fall of the year 1934 eighty-seven confident Juniors met again in the halls of Perysburg High School. Miss Munger and Mr. Huffman were their sponsors this year. They participated in many activities, both scholastic and athletic. They, too, sadden at the thoughts of the approaching Senior year, after which they will leave P. H. S. and go out into the world for themselves. The officers elected were:

MATTHEW DOWLING	President
JOHN HUFFMAN	Vice-President
VIRGINIA LIMMER	Secretary
JACK THORNTON	Treasurer
JOHN LANDWEHR	Reporter
GLADYS BAKER	Student Council Representative

ORGANIZATIONS

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society, as its name suggests, is a national organization of honor students of First Grade High Schools. This society has proven to be a great inspiration to the student body and elevates the school standards, for each student desires to attain membership in this society, which is considered the greatest honorary distinction given by the school. Enrollment is limited to students who are conspicuously outstanding in scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

Perrysburg High School has held membership in this national society for ten years, and within this time has enrolled seventy-five members. Each year the faculty elect five per cent of the Junior class and ten per cent of the Senior class as members.

The honored members of the 1935 class are: D. Ruth Sage, Alma Reitz, May Smithers, Mary Lober, Muriel Emmitt, Hazel Holcombe, Ursula Kotowski, Virginia Zachman, Betty Wiechel, Lyonel Eckel, and Mary Cranker.

Those students who were selected as the two highest students in each subject, as a result of elimination contests held in the high school, and who represented Perrysburg High School at the State Scholarship Examination held May 4, at Bowling Green, included the following members:

Chemistry—May Smithers, Robert Sterling.

Physics—Alma Reitz, Stanley Huffman.

General Science—Marian Reitz, Donald Kindervater.

Plane Geometry—Earl Schumacher, Park Snively.

Algebra I—Anabel McFillen, Howard Huffman.

Modern History—Elizabeth Keuhn, Richard Spoerl.

American History—Muriel Emmitt, Katherine Hillabrand.

English I—Florence Mahler, Florence Droppelman.

English II—Ruth Cummins, Lenore Robertson.

English III—Virginia Limmer, Hilda Mary Wenz.

English IV—Hazel Holcombe, Betty Wiechel.

Latin I—Evelyn Kuhlman, Dorothea Terrey.

Latin II—Mary Mosher, Mary McAuley.

French I—Alice Spreng, Mary Margaret Kurfis.

French II—Catherine Acklin, Mary Lober.

SCHOLARSHIP TEAM

The Semester Honor Roll is made up of those students who received an average of "B" or above for the semester in each of his subjects. We are happy to say that this year more pupils are members of the Semester Honor Roll than in any preceding year and take this advantage of congratulating them upon their excellent scholastic standing.

SENIORS—Shirley Byington, Muriel Emmitt, Katherine Hillabrand, Hazel Holcombe, Mary Lober, Dorothy Lees, Katherine Lindsay, Helen Mandell, Alma Reitz, D. Ruth Sage, Lyle Schneider, May Smithers.

JUNIORS—Catherine Acklin, Jean Allen, Jane Dickson, Nellie Duffey, Christina Hansen, Frederick Jacobs, Mary Margaret Kurfis, John Landwehr, Virginia Limmer, Theresa Pustay, Kathryn Shumaker, Lucille Spilker, Alice Spreng, Hilda Mary Wenz.

SOPHOMORES—Lawrence Brossia, Ruth Cummins, Ocie Draime, Felia Ford, Wilma Johnson, Elizabeth Keuhn, Mary Mosher, Mary McAuley, Eileen Mahler, Margaret Jean Petteys, Lenore Robertson, Florence Smithers, Earl Schumacher, Parke Snavely, Jane Tinney, Daisy Wygant.

The library merits a place of distinction among the organizations of the school. It is the spring of never-failing knowledge; and in a school it is that "lump which leaventh the whole."

The Perrysburg High School library consists of upwards of 1063 volumes ranging through all the general heads of the Dewey System.

The past school year witnessed an innovation in the library here, with the presentation by the Class of '34, of several volumes, among which are the following titles:

The Standard Book of British and American Verse.
The Life of Samuel Johnson—Boswell.
The Medeci—G. F. Young.
Wuthering Heights—Bronte.
Only Yesterday—Allen.

Mrs. Eva Reape, Class of '93, has presented, "Character Sketches of Romance Fiction and the Drama"—Brewer. We take this occasion of thanking these people for their interest.

The librarians below, chosen from the student body, have given faithfully and loyally of their time and devotion, and have made it possible for the library to function efficiently.

We thank you, and we are happy that you may gain the recognition which is your due.

The librarians include Ursula Kotowski, Muriel Emmitt, May Smithers, Jean Allen, Mary Mosher, Adeline Sass, Shirley Byington, Mary Cranker, Charles Dowling.

GIRL RESERVES

The Girl Reserves are Junior and Senior girls who possess high standards of character and scholarship. Their aim is to aid in the advancement of all the vital interests of girls, in terms of social, economic, intellectual, moral, and spiritual welfare, through a development of companionship, leadership, and fineness of character.

Not all of our efforts, however, center inside the school. We have also assisted the community in various ways, such as, distributing literature concerning the school levy, sponsoring the Red Cross Drive, and entertaining the welfare children with a Christmas party.

We owe our success, not only to the splendid cooperation of the members, but also to the untiring efforts of Miss Forsythe, our sponsor, who has guided the club to its success.

The officers who have served so faithfully throughout the year include:

D. RUTH SAGE	President	ALMA REITZ	Treasurer
VIRGINIA ZACHMAN	Vice-President	VIRGINIA LIMMER	Reporter
ARTHELLA BRITTEN	Secretary	HILDA MARY WENZ	Chaplain

The Hi-Y is an international organization of high school boys whose purpose is to seek for themselves and their fellow students the highest standards of life and conduct. The motto of the Hi-Y Club is: "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character".

This organization, as its name implies, is affiliated with the Young Men's Christian Association. The Y. M. C. A. sponsors Hi-Y training camps, World Brotherhood, Vocational Guidance Campaigns and various other activities of which the local club is an active participant.

The officers are:

CHARLES DOWLING	President	JOHN LANDWEHR	Treasurer
ROBERT BENCH	Vice-President	DONALD HALBERT	Reporter
RICHARD WELLSTEAD	Secretary	WILLIAM HONNER	Chaplain
MATTHEW DOWLING	Sergeant-at-Arms

The club is fortunate in having for its advisor, Mr. Treece, whose splendid leadership and personal character make him a true example of an ideal Hi-Y member, as well as an excellent advisor.

CHARM SCHOOL

Regardless of the fact that this is only the the second year of existence for this club it already has a large enrollment.

The purpose of the club is to develop personality and charm in its members. Programs in the form of plays and other clever amusements have been planned to teach dancing, proper etiquette, suitable conversation, and attractive dress.

The members are convinced that it is a very worthwhile club and feel Miss Forsyth was an important factor in its success this year.

The officers in charge this year were:

JANET NIEDERHOUSE _____ President

DOROTHY SCHEIDER _____ Reporter

NEOMA TOBER _____ Vice-President

WILMA JOHNSON _____ Secy.-Treasurer

RUTH CUMMINS _____ Program Chairman

The ten members of the Group Leadership Club are interested in parliamentary procedure as outlined in the O. Garfield Jones Group Leadership Manual. They find their club work fascinating and recreational because of the many forms of contests introduced. The experience they are getting in this club is sure to be of value to them in the future.

In the club itself, each in turn is an official so that every member gets the experience of being the presiding officer or the floor leader. However, in order that the club may work with other organizations of P. H. S. it has elected as permanent officers:

EARL SCHUMACHER _____ President

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

A Girls' Athletic Association was organized late in the school year of 1934-'35.

The following officers were elected:

NELLIE DUFFEY _____ President	THERSA PUSTAY _____ Activities Chrm.
IRENE HOLKOVIC _____ Vice-President	MISS FORSYTH _____ Advisor
GLENNA MAE WOLF _____ Secy.-Treas.	MISS MUNGER _____ Advisor

This association has been organized for the purpose of providing suitable interests for athletically inclined girls, to encourage interest in gym classes, and to make it possible for the girls of Perrysburg High School to earn letters. Judging from the interest shown thus far by the girls the association promises to be very successful and valuable.

The Boys' Athletic Club was organized this year under the sponsorship of Mr. Sheffer. At the first meeting the following officers were elected for the year:

DAVID STANFORD _____ President	BERNARD FOX _____ Secretary-Treasurer
NORBERT HIMBURG _____ Vice-President	BOB LINDSAY _____ Reporter

The purpose of this club is to strive for better health and sportsmanship and to create in its members a greater interest in athletics. Discussions were held and reports given at the meetings on various sports.

This club was organized under the sponsorship of Miss Wahl. The officers elected for the year include:

WILMA EMCH	President	MARGARET HERMAN	Secretary
ZELTA KAZMAIER	Vice-President	WILMA GROLLE	Treasurer
MARGARET PETTEYS	Reporter

Under the leadership of these officers and its sponsor, Miss Wahl, the club has been very active. The work has covered a large field ranging from the painting of silhouette pictures to the creating of various sewing projects. At Christmas time inexpensive toys were made for children. The club has also planned and served two luncheons this year, accommodating about forty members and guests.

A display is being planned to be given in coherence with the Home Economics Class. The club has worked hard to maintain its name, "Live Wires."

The aim of the Science Club is to create and promote interest in General Science by combining amusement with practical scientific knowledge. The club has become quite popular because of its special appeal to scientific students.

The following officers were elected to guide us through the year:

ARTHUR THORNTON	President	ELIZABETH JENSEN	Secretary
KARL MICHELSON	Vice-President	MARTIN ALTHOFF	Treasurer
MARY MOSHER	Program Chairman

These officers, with the help of Mr. Canfield and Mr. Haydock, have directed a series of very interesting programs, consisting of discussions and reports on electricity, pressure, and various other scientific phenomena.

LATIN CLUB

The First and Second year Latin Clubs were organized this year under the capable leadership of Miss Forsyth. The usual name "Veni, Vidi, Vici," was selected. The colors chosen were Roman purple and silver, and the motto, "Succeed, We Can, We Must."

The purpose of the club is to attain that knowledge of the Roman language, customs, ideals, characteristics, and literature, to make Latin one of the most interesting subjects in the high school curriculum.

A program was presented during one of our regular convocation periods to impress upon the student body the great importance and value of Latin.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The purpose of the Student Council is to aid in the internal government of the school, to cooperate with the faculty in the furthering of suitable extra curricular activities, and to promote the interest of the school by developing in the students a sense of responsibility for the school's well being.

Elected as officers for the year were:

RICHARD WELLSTEADPresident JANET NIEDERHOUSE Vice-President
ALMA REITZ Secretary and Reporter

Mr. Huffman, our sponsor, led us through the year in an experienced manner. We feel that this is a worthwhile organization, and certainly one of the most helpful for the school.

The purpose of this club is to acquaint the student body with the better types of literature and to become more intimate ourselves with good books. To accomplish the first object, we have presented book booths for the students. For our own benefit, we have had book reviews, and we have had speakers who talked to us about the various phases of literature in which we were interested.

This is a very interesting club, and with Miss Munger as our sponsor, we have had a most enjoyable year.

KATHERINE LINDSAY	Vice-President	VIGINIA HILL	Property Manager
ARTHELLA BRITTEN	Secy.-Treas.	ADELINE SASS	Librarian
VIRGINIA LIMMER	Reporter	ARTHELLA BRTTEN	Accompanist

This organization deserves praise for the efforts they have put forth, Mr. Gerber having stated that it is the best Girls' Glee Club he has ever had.

The Club was represented in the Northwestern Eisteddfod, where it sang "Rain," by Curran.

The Boys' Glee Club was organized this year with a membership of thirty-four boys, who, under the capable leadership of Mr. Gerber, have given their best efforts toward musical accomplishments.

Twenty-nine of the members were selected to represent our high school in the Music Contest at Bluffton. The contest numbers were: "The Song of the Waves" and "The Song of the Western Men."

The officers were:

RICHARD WELLSTEAD	President	MATTHEW DOWLING	Librarian

ORCHESTRA

Each year shows the development of Mr. Gerber's work as director of Perry'sburg High School Orchestra. The Orchestra of thirty-one musicians includes several players who have had much experience in school music. The success of the High School Orchestra is largely due to the fact that Mr. Gerber has a Junior Orchestra to give pupils training in advance for the Senior High School Orchestra.

Good music is becoming a tradition in P. H. S. The Orchestra stands ready for all occasions. It serves both the school and the community. They are available for free services of smaller groups taken from the Orchestras; such as a reed quartet, brass quartet, and occasional trios, duets, and soloists.

We do not know of a school in this part of the state that engages in more contest work in music than Perry'sburg High School. The reason for this has been Mr. Gerber's desire to take an active part in the most phenomenal change that has ever come to secondary education, which is no other than the advancement made in school music. Mr. Gerber's ambitions are shared by his pupils. The Orchestra alone is making ten entries in the 1935 music contests; the whole Orchestra is in a contest, and out of the Orchestra are entered two ensembles and seven soloists. Win or lose in these contests, the young musicians gain so much through concentration of effort in preparing for the contests that the result is sure to be a great victory.

The officers of the Orchestra include:

DRAMATIC CLUB

This has proved to be another successful year for this well known organization, due perhaps to the talent we have had to work with, and also to the size of the club. We have sponsored quite a number of plays this year for the general benefit of Perrysburg and the school.

The officers who served for the year were:

ROBERT KILLE	President	MARY CRANKER	Secretary-Treasurer
JOHN LANDWEHR	Vice-President	ARTHELLA BRITTEN	Reporter

Mr. Barber, the director of the club, is greatly responsible for the success of our productions, and deserves much credit for his willing effort.

This club was newly organized this year under the worthy sponsorship of Miss Munger. At the first meeting the following officers were elected:

ROCK CUMMINGS	President	IRENE RICHARDS	Secretary
ORVILLE DECKO	Vice-President	JOHN THORNTON	Treasurer
KATHERINE LINDSAY		Reporter

The purpose of this club was to boost all school activities and to create and maintain a clean athletic spirit throughout the school.

During the past year the club has been busy preparing programs and ribbons which were sold at the football games. A moving picture also was sponsored as a means of financing various school activities.

A dance was given by the club in March which proved to be a success.

We feel that we have accomplished a great deal during our first year and we hope to do even better in the future.

RED CROSS GIRLS

As service is one of the outstanding principles of the Girl Reserve Code, a great part of the G. R. yearly program is centered around various means of serving our school and community in every possible manner.

One of our outstanding deeds of service this year was the Red Cross Drive conducted entirely by the members of the Girl Reserves of Perrysburg High School.

The girls with their significant headdress canvassed the entire city of Perrysburg, as well as the outlying districts. Due to their earnest, sincere efforts, the quota for our community was reached, and exceeded.

The Hi-Y and Girl Reserve Organizations furnished students to assist in spreading knowledge and printed material on the "Three mill levy" for schools last November.

Below is a picture of the group. These young people are to be congratulated upon their willingness to serve the community in a good cause.

COACHES

Coach Sheffer—Considering the number of games won, this has been rather an unsuccessful year for Coach Robert Sheffer, but from the standpoint of the developing of new material it was a very important one.

It is a difficult task for any Coach to step into a strange school and expect real success. Coach Sheffer has, however, gained the good will of the boys in the athletic department, and the admiration of all the students of the school.

In another year we are confident that the Coach and the boys will show us what real success means.

"Doc" Canfield—Assistant coach and trainer. "Doc" was of great assistance during our football season this year. He helped whip the green material into shape and did much in the way of teaching the basis fundamentals of the game to the beginners. Everyone appreciates "Doc's" service and interest in our athletic team and many a bump didn't feel so bad when he was around to administer first aid to the boys.

Mr. Treece, Faculty Manager—Mr. Treece showed great interest in our athletic teams this year. In addition to his regular duties as Manager he also helped out with the coaching during the football season. When he made a suggestion the boys made an honest attempt to carry out the plan.

Mr. Treece has been of great assistance to Coach Sheffer and can certainly be praised for his work in helping to develop the teams of P. H. S.

FOOTBALL PERSONALS

Captain Liebherr: Fullback—"Al" was a fighter in all games this year. He was a great defensive man, he could always gain a few yards when they were needed badly. Graduation will take Al and his position will be mighty hard to fill. So here's to you, Al!

Dick Wellstead: Halfback—"Dick" was handicapped this year by illness and injuries but even these could not keep him from playing some great football. He starred especially in the Maumee game. Dick is one of the few who have made four letters in football at P. H. S. He was the sparkplug of the team and will be greatly missed next fall.

Bratche Webster: Guard—"Brakie" was one of our smaller boys this year, registering 6 feet, 2 inches, and with weight in proportion to it. He was shifted around in several positions and proved to be a tough man in all of them. He played a fine game and was admired by all. He too, is a Senior and will be a great loss to P. H. S. football. So long, Brakie!

William Schwind: End—"Bill" played sort of a mediocre brand of ball at the start but about mid-season he opened up. When they circled his end he really tackled with drive so that any ball carrier was glad to evade him. He could also snag passes and make good yardage. He, too, will leave us by graduation. Good luck, Bill!

Glenn Reither: Halfback—"Glenn" was a valuable man in our back field. When Liebherr couldn't punt 60 yards, Glenn could always kick them 59. As a runner he had drive and deception. Too bad that graduation will take Glenn as he would have made a good punter next year. Sorry to see you go, Glenn.

James Stemen: Quarterback—"Jim" was the lightest man on the varsity but an excellent safety man. He was a fighter, a deceptive runner, and a boy that tackled with a fierce drive. Jim found it inconvenient to stay with us and we are truly sorry to lose him.

Charles Richards: Tackle—"Chuck", also, stands tall and wide. He really received the thrill that good football gives and played a whale of a game. He has one more year and should rate as the best lineman P. H. S. has ever had. We wish you lots of luck, Chuck.

Earl Schumacher: Tackle—"Earlie" was our heaviest man this year and he certainly used his weight to good advantage. He is an honor student and a clever man on the gridiron, being the only P. H. S. student to be a member of the National Scholastic Athletic Society. He is only a Sophomore so he will be heard of and admired as a student and football player in the next two years. We're with you Earl, so show your stuff.

Fred Althoff: Tackle—"Fred" was a new man on the gridiron this season, but he got a lot of experience and should be a good bet for any coach. He has one more year at P. H. S. so let's go, Fred!

James Cousino: End—"Frenchy" received much experience this year and should be the outstanding end in the League next season. He can snag passes and take them down the field like nobody's business. He has two more years to play, so we're expecting a lot from you, "Frenchy."

Edgar Liebherr: Quarterback—"Ed" was our safety man part of the time and a halfback the rest of the season. He was a good open field runner with enough deception to make anyone watch him. He, too, has two more years to spend with us, so we'll be looking for you, Ed.

David Stanford: Center—"Dave" was a bit light for his position this year but had lots of fight and played a good game. He has two years yet to show his stuff for P. H. S. Give all you have, Dave.

Norbert Himburg: Guard—"Hamburg" is a stocky boy with a drive to hold back any opposition. He plays a fighting game and gets his share of the tackles. He has two more years to play so we hope to see him fighting for P. H. S. again next year.

Dale Thompson: Halfback—"Whitey" was a Freshman that saw quite a bit of service this year. He lacked experience but was a hard fighter. He is determined to make himself a real back, so watch him!

Maurice Walp: Guard—"Bud" was the only Freshman to make the Varsity this year. He's plenty tough and nothing can hold him from breaking through and stopping plays. We hope to see more great playing from you the next three years, Bud.

FOOTBALL REVIEW

The football season of 1934 can be classed as another building year. We feel that in another year or two P. H. S. should put one of the best teams in the county on the field. Many more Freshmen are participating in the game than in preceding years and if anything will bring success to P. H. S. football this interest shown by the underclassmen certainly ought to.

Spring practice this year will call about thirty-five lads together. What is in store for us next fall, however, still remains to be seen.

The huge problem of the Coach will be to find some men who can take the place of those who are graduating this May. Among those who will leave will be Wellstead and Liebherr of the backfield, Schwind and Webster of the line, and Reither, P. H. S.'s star punter.

Although the team of 1934-1935 played the same teams as those played last year our boys were at a disadvantage because of the size of our men and the loss of some good material from last year.

The whole game, nevertheless, does not rest in the score. Good sportsmanship is an important item, and we feel the boys have been good sports. P. H. S. presented some of the best class A ball at the tournament at Defiance this year, much of the credit belonging to Mr. Sheffer for his fine training of the boys.

It is hard to determine just what next year will bring, considering the loss of Burkhart, Wellstead, and Liebherr, through graduation; but with Schumacher, Haas, Jacobs, and Stanford back, along with some good substitutes we should have a team that will make us all stand up and cheer.

BASKETBALL REVIEW

BASKETBALL PERSONALS

Captain Wellstead—Forward

"Dick" was the only member of his class to win four letters in basketball. He was handicapped by size but speed, cleverness, and lots of fight did much to overcome this handicap. In the class A tournament at Defiance he was the high point man of either team with 11 points to his credit. Sorry to see you go, Dick!

Gordon Burkhart—Center

"Burkie" played a smooth game all season. We could always depend on him to sink the "short ones" as well as to jump center. He is one of our veteran ball players that will leave us this year through graduation. P. H. S. will be at a loss next year when this boy doesn't report. Good luck to you, Burkie!

Albert Liebherr—Guard

"Al" was off form for awhile this season. He was capable but just couldn't get going. In the final games of the season, however, he opened up and proved his worth to any basketball club as a guard and an offensive player. P. H. S. is going to miss him next year. Good luck, Al!

Ambrose Haas—Forward

"Ham" is one of those graceful boys we all like to see on a basketball floor. He has another year to play and we're expecting a lot from you, Ham.

Frederick Jacobs—Forward

"Freddie" plays an aggressive game and is an asset to a ball club. He has received enough experience this year to make him the best forward in the League; so watch him next year.

David Stanford—Guard

"Dave" has developed into a good guard and with a little more experience he should be of great value to P. H. S. He has two more years, so let's go, Dave.

Earl Schumacher—Center

"Earlie" is fast becoming the main cog in P. H. S. athletics. You have two more years, Earl, and we are depending on you for winning teams.

GIRLS' GYM CLASS

Great interest and enthusiasm has been displayed in the Girls' Gym Classes this year and a very active program has been carried out, beginning with hikes, baseball, volley ball, marching, calisthenics, and then, of course, basketball. Since the close of the basketball season the girls have been very active in tumbling, pyramid building, relays, folk dances, novelty dances, and tap dancing, all of which the girls presented to the public in the evening of March 26 in a very clever gym exhibition.

An unusual degree of enthusiasm and interest has been displayed in the Girls' Physical Education work this year, and of course especially in basketball.

A keen rivalry was shown in the Girls' Intramurals in February. The captains of each class team drew for the team to be played. The drawing resulted in the Seniors playing the Freshmen, with a score of 63 to 7 in favor of the Seniors, although the Freshmen showed some excellent playing and teamwork. The Juniors defeated the Sophomores in a very close, evenly matched contest, the score being 18 to 14. The final game was played between the Seniors and Juniors on the evening of March 8 before a large crowd, the Seniors playing a fast, winning game, displaying very clever teamwork and plays.

We are losing some fast, clever players this year through graduation, who have proved themselves outstanding in their four years of playing basketball.

GIRLS' CHAMPIONSHIP INTRAMURAL TEAM

BOYS' GYM CLASS

Perrysburg High enjoyed a very successful season of intramural athletics. This type of contest not only develops players for future varsity teams but also gives every student an opportunity to take part in athletics.

Our intramural basketball league was composed of eight teams. These teams were coached by members of the varsity squad. During the regular league schedule fifty-two games were played, with a total of seventy-two boys taking part.

The teams coached by Wellstead and Liebherr finished the season, tied for first place. Wellstead's team, composed of Cupp, Reis, Thomas, H. Lehman, Emch, F. Richards, and S. Huffman, won the "play off."

Gordon Thomas, of the championship team, was moved to the varsity squad and was one of the ten players to go to the Defiance tournament.

Bob Heckler of Burkhardt's team, was the leading scorer of the league, scoring a total of 79 points. He was followed closely by Paul Kazmaier of the Jacob Five with a total of 74 points.

Liebherr's team scored the highest number of points in a single game defeating Honner 41 to 23. Stanford's team was the strongest defensively, holding Haas' team to one point in one of the best played games during the season.

SIMPLE CONCLUSIONS

To acquire an education and then not use it, is a waste of knowledge.

To pay one finance company more than we charge for financing an automobile purchase, is a waste of money.

TWO CARS IN EVERY GARAGE

. . Impossible . . . Too Costly . .

« Well perhaps, but Gray-Lith the new, fast, economical process is making high school annuals possible where the high cost of engravings made an annual out of the question before.

« This delightful book has been prepared entirely by Gray-Lith, an amazing printing process in which no expensive engravings are necessary. It is offered only by
